

Black Bibliography Project--Summit 3
May 14-15, 2018 @ Yale

Invited Participants

- Melissa Barton, Curator, Yale Collection of American Literature, Beinecke Library
- Joellen ElBashir, Interim Chief Librarian & Curator, Moorland-Spangarn Collection
- Randall Burkett, Curator, James Weldon Johnson Collection, Emory
- Mark Custer, Archivist & Metadata Coordinator, Beinecke Library
- John Ernest, Department of English, University of Delaware
- Todd Fell, Head, Rare Book Cataloguing Unit, Beinecke Library
- DeLisa Minor Harris, Reference Librarian for Special Collections, Fisk
- Dave Hicking, Head, Information Technologies, Beinecke Library
- Maira Liriano, Associate Chief Librarian, the Jean Blackwell Hutson Research & Reference Division, Schomburg Ctr. for Research in Black Culture
- Kinohi Nishikawa, Departments of English & African American Studies, Princeton
- Audrey Pearson, Rare Book Cataloguing & Metadata Librarian, Beinecke Library
- E.C. Schroeder, Director, Beinecke Library
- Mary Yearwood,
- Tim Thompson, Discovery Metadata Librarian, Yale Library
- Ben Vershbow, Programs Manager for Community Engagement at Wikimedia
- Mary Yearwood, Director of Collections, Schomburg Ctr. for Research in Black Culture, New York Public Library
- Graduate Students in 19th c. + 20th c. African American literary studies @ Rutgers & Yale

The Conveners:

Jackie Goldsby, Yale
Meredith McGill, Rutgers